U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs
www.va.gov

You may be eligible for VA benefits if you are:

- a veteran
- a veteran's dependent
- surviving spouse, child or parent of a deceased veteran
- an active-duty military service member
- a member of the Reserve or National Guard

If you are eligible for federal benefits, but never have applied, you still can. Let a professionally trained VFW service officer help you. In fact, by turning to the VFW to help you file a claim, the chances for approval are much better than if you go at it alone.

Here are just some of the benefits you may have earned:

Compensation: VA can pay you monthly compensation if you are at least 10% disabled as a result of your military service.

Pension: You can receive a monthly pension if you are a wartime veteran with limited income, and you are permanently and totally disabled or at least 65 years old.

Health Care: Various services are available, including hospital, outpatient medical, dental, pharmacy and prosthetic services, sexual trauma counseling, specialized health care for women veterans, readjustment counseling, alcohol and drug dependency treatment and medical evaluation for disorders associated with military service in the Gulf War, or exposure to Agent Orange, radiation, and other environmental hazards. Note: Combat Veterans receive free medical care for any illness possibly associated with service during a period of hostility for five years from the veteran's release from active duty.

Vocational Rehabilitation & Employment: VA can help veterans with service-connected disabilities prepare for, find and keep suitable employment. For veterans with serious service-connected disabilities, VA also offers services to improve their ability to live as independently as possible.

G.I. Bill-Education & Training: VA pays benefits to eligible veterans, reservists, and active-duty service members while they are in an approved education or training program.

Home Loans: VA offers various home-loan services to eligible veterans, some military personnel, and certain surviving spouses.

Life Insurance: Veterans Group Life Insurance (VGLI) is renewable term life insurance for veterans who want to convert their SGLI up to an amount not to exceed the coverage you had when you separated from service. Service-Disabled Veterans Insurance, also called "RH" Insurance, is for service-connected veterans. Coverage is $10,000. You may be eligible for a $20,000 supplemental policy if you are totally disabled.

Dependents & Survivors: Dependency and Indemnity Compensation is payable to certain survivors.
